1. The Yugoslav Government passed a resolution whereby the following classes are to report for the voluntary labor.
 - a. All unemployed industrial workers;
 - b. All factory workers released for lack of raw materials;
 - c. Peasants in those sections of the country where the summer crop has been harvested.
 2. Several public incidents occurred recently demonstrating the dissatisfaction of peasants and unemployed workers toward existing conditions. The Government resolution to recruit them for voluntary labor was allegedly motivated by the Government's desire to prevent further subversive activities by subjecting the dissatisfied elements of the population to close surveillance.
 3. An order was recently issued by the Yugoslav Government whereby all invalid Yugoslav War Veterans who are able are to report to their respective authorities in order to attend anti-aircraft defense courses. Those who fail to comply with the order will be subject to military discipline. Courses are given at the headquarters of the nearest military units, and upon completion of training, the men are given duties in the auxiliary defense services in accordance with their capabilities.
